

NEW YORK CONCORD grapes

We're Grapeful for Knowledge!

Did You Know...

New York is the 2nd largest producer of Concord grapes in the United States.

Concord grapes are an excellent source of vitamins K and C, and the seeds (which you can eat!) are full of antioxidants.

Most Concord grapes are used to make juice, but they can also be made into jelly, jams, concentrates, slushies and smoothies!